

Youth On Boards: Get To Know You and Your Board Worksheet

These are questions that both mentor and youth should address:

1. Share names, educational background, and area of Burlington where you live.
2. Share interests, hobbies, favorite music/TV shows/movies.
3. Share some of your own strengths/skills/gifts/talents.
4. Share one hope that you have for the future of the City of Burlington.
5. When you think _____*, what sort of responsibilities come to mind?
6. What is it about _____*that draws you to serving as a member?
7. Mentor: Describe a typical meeting agenda of _____*. Feel free to highlight present issues at hand and the prep work that you do to prepare for meetings. (This has the potential to get in-depth, please keep your description to a few minutes in length.)
8. Youth: What was something about that agenda that you found interesting?
9. Mentor: Using only positive language, describe the other members of your board/commission.
10. What other questions do you have?
11. The name of the commission/Board that you will be serving on here:

Partnering for
Our Sustainable Future

A program of the Burlington Legacy Project
"Recommitting to the Vision"

Updated 9/11/09